

The purpose of Professional Learning is for educators to develop the knowledge, skills, practices, and dispositions they need to help students perform at higher levels. In order to continue to develop, an educator needs to gain new learning and apply this new learning. To better enable you the opportunity to earn in-service hours for your new professional learning, please use this form to share essential information with your professional learning facilitator or administration.

| Program Information | |
|---|--|
| Attendee's full name: | |
| Program title: | Honors Performance Series Educator Program |
| Program begin and end times: | June 20-24, 2018 |
| Professional Development: | *Participants will earn 25 PD points upon successful completion of the program. |
| Program Focus: | This program has been designed to enable music educators to experience the Series while working on their own professional development and enjoying the music and culture of New York City. |
| Itinerary | |
| Wednesday June 20, 2018 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Afternoon arrival into New York City • Program Registration at the Series hotel • Meet your Series Host • Evening free time Thursday June 21, 2018 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Broadway Workshop: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Come ready to move in this fun-filled workshop led by working professionals, from Broadway stars to casting directors to seasoned Film & TV actors who share their knowledge, enthusiasm and joy with students of all ages. • Attend Junior Finalist Rehearsals • Professional Development Seminar: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Customized workshop, led by one of our renowned professional clinicians, with content determined by participant disciplines and desired areas of focus. • Evening free time OR Broadway show (optional add-on; additional fees apply) | Friday June 22, 2018 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attend Junior Finalist Rehearsals • Round-table with Series staff: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Learn more about the Series through a participant driven Q&A session with your peers. Chaperones working with the Middle School Finalists will be available to share their experiences and best practices about nominating and supporting Junior Finalists. • Dinner with Honors Conductors (may include): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Sally Albrecht - Honors Junior Choir ◦ Curt Ebersole - Honors Junior Band ◦ Kirt Mosier - Honors Junior Orchestra Saturday June 23, 2018 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professional Development Seminar: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Working within a prestigious performance venue, music educators will strengthen their skills via a series of training and musical activities. Content will focus on topics such as classroom strategies, building a community of peers and interacting with local music professionals. • One priority ticket to the Honors Junior Finalist Performance at Carnegie Hall • Closing reception – receive your professional development certificate (pending participation in all scheduled Series activities listed) Sunday June 24, 2018 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Farewell and departure for home *Schedule subject to change. All participants will be given an updated itinerary upon arrival. |

* Terminology varies accordingly by state. Points, clock/contact hours, or CEUs are awarded based on trip length according to the following formula: 5 points/hours per day or .5 CEU's.