

The purpose of Professional Learning is for educators to develop the knowledge, skills, practices, and dispositions they need to help students perform at higher levels. In order to continue to develop, an educator needs to gain new learning and apply this new learning. To better enable you the opportunity to earn in-service hours for your new professional learning, please use this form to share essential information with your professional learning facilitator or administration.

Program Information

Attendee's full name:
Program title:	Honors Performance Series Educator Program
Program begin and end times:	June 19-23, 2019
Professional Development:	Participants will earn 25 PD points upon successful completion of the program. Terminology varies by state. Points, clock/contact hours, or CEUs are awarded based on program length according to the following formula: 5 points/hours per day or .5 CEU's.
Program Focus:	This program has been designed to enable music educators to experience the Honors Performance Series, interacting with the Middle School Series, while expanding their professional skills.

Itinerary

Schedule subject to change. All participants will be provided a more detailed itinerary approximately 2 weeks prior to the program.

Wednesday, June 19, 2019

- Evening arrival into New York City
- Program Registration at the Series hotel
- Meet your Series Host

Please note: Wednesday evening activities are optional as to allow teachers flexibility in traveling to New York after the school day, as possible; hotel accommodations will be provided Wednesday evening for all participants.

Thursday, June 20, 2019

- Welcome meeting and Professional Development Seminar:
Customized workshop, led by one of our renowned professional clinicians, with content determined by participant disciplines and desired areas of focus.
- Attend Honors Ensemble rehearsals:
Watch as our renowned Honors Conductors interact with talented musicians from all over the world. Take some inspiration and ideas back home with you!
- Professional Development Seminar:
Networking and brainstorming session with Educator Program participants, with content determined by participant disciplines and desired areas of focus.
- Evening free time OR Broadway show (optional add-on; additional fees apply)

Friday, June 21, 2019

- Broadway Workshop:
Come ready to move in this fun-filled workshop led by working professionals, from Broadway stars to casting directors to seasoned film & TV actors who share their knowledge and enthusiasm with students of all ages.

(Friday, continued)

- Attend additional Honors Ensemble rehearsals
- Roundtable with Series staff:
Learn more about the Series through a participant-driven Q&A session with your peers. Chaperones working with the Series will be available to share their experiences and best practices about nominating and supporting students interested in participating in future Series programs.
- Dinner with the Honors Conductors:
*Rollo Dilworth (Honors Junior Choir)
Robert Taylor (Honors Junior Band)
Angela Woo (Honors Junior Orchestra)*

Saturday, June 22, 2019

- Professional Development Seminar:
Working within a prestigious performance venue, music educators will strengthen their skills via a series of training and musical activities. Content will focus on topics such as classroom strategies, building a community of peers, and interacting with local music professionals.
- Free time to enjoy New York
- One priority ticket to the Honors Junior Performance at Carnegie Hall

Sunday, June 23, 2019

- Closing Reception:
Receive your Professional Development Certificate (pending successful participation in all scheduled Series activities)
- Farewell and departure for home